FREE LANCE, HAWTHORN AND LITTLE NEPHEW AMONG LATE ARRIVALS IN KENTUCKY.*First Named Is in Fine Condition for Fall Campaign, but Hawthorn Has Not Yet Recovered from Effects of His Spring Sickness at Lexington.

Louisville, Ky., September 6.—Three high-class horses arrived at the local tracks yesterday from Saratoga to race during the coming fall season here at Douglas Park and Churchill Downs. They are Free Lance, winner of the Latonia Derby, and champion three-year-old of 1912; Hawthorn, sensational two-year-old of 1912, and Little Nephew, one of the best two-year-olds of the present racing season and the only one that has ever beaten the remarkable Old Rosebud.

Both Free Lance and Hawthorn are quartered at Douglas Park, while Little Nephew is in his old stall at Churchill Downs. Trainer E. Brown, who has Little Nephew in charge, shipped that gelding and the two-year-old filly, Yankee Tree, via Lexington in the car with the boys' string, which was unloaded at the Kentucky Association course.

Trainer Pete Coyne brought, along with Free Lance, eight other horses, owned by George J. Long, all of which are now quartered at Douglas Park. They are Semprite, which won two of her three starts at Saratoga, Ralph, Harry L., Eustace, Hortense, Toronto, Lindar and Raoul.

Free Lance appears to be in grand condition and will apparently soon be fit to do his best at racing. Trainer Coyne says his best work at Saratoga was a mile in 1:12, though he had much slow centering. Free Lance will likely first start here in the $3,500 Douglas Park inaugural handicap, one mile on a sixteen, to be run at that course on the opening day of the Douglas Park meeting, and the great four-year-old is also eligible for the $5,000 Louisville Cup, two miles, to be run on Saturday, October 4, the closing day of the autumn meeting at this track. At Churchill Downs Free Lance is eligible for the $15,000 Kentucky Endurance Stakes, while his engagements at Latonia embrace the Autumn Inaugural Handicap and the Latonia Cup, the latter race being at two miles and a quarter.

Semprite, in the Long string, is also engaged in the Douglas Park Inaugural Handicap and at Churchill Downs she is entered for the Falls City Handicap, six furlongs. She is also engaged for the Latonia Autumn Inaugural Handicap. Most of the two-year-olds that trainer Coyne has in his string at Douglas Park have stake engagements on all the big tracks of the Kentucky circuit this fall.

Trainer W. S. Trevey, who has the noted gelding Hawthorn in charge, brought only one horse here besides the son of Hastings, that being Blue Jay, also owned by Charles F. Buschmeyer. The latter arrived at his home here a few days ago from Atlanta City, where he spent most of the summer. Hawthorn seems to be in fine shape and Trevey, who has no excuse to offer for him, says he fears that he has not yet gotten over the effects of his last spring's sickness at Lexington. He still believes that he will round to this fall and do some great racing over the Kentucky tracks. The gelding is entered for the Douglas Park Inaugural Handicap, the $5,000 Louisville Cup, also at Douglas Park, the Falls City Handicap at Churchill Downs, and the Latonia Autumn Inaugural Handicap and Latonia Cup. Trevey says that the reason he gave up the training of H. L. Kane and Rudolph, winner of the $15,000 Kentucky Handicap, was that when he was ready to proceed to Saratoga from Canada Captain Emmens desired his colt to stay there for a time. There was no friction over the horse, simply a difference of opinion as to what was best to do with him at that time. When Trevey turned him over to Captain Emmens the noted four-year-old was suffering with a slight lameness in his left fore-anke, which was regarded by the trainer as trifling. The trouble, he said, had been developed into a threatened rheumatism, which may or may not prevent Rudolph from filling his stake engagements this fall, though when Trevey left Saratoga Emmens spoke hopefully of bringing Rudolph to the post this fall in the rich events for which he is eligible at Douglas Park, Churchill Downs and Latonia.

Trainer J. H. Hyle, who is under contract to George J. Long, will not go to Lexington for the meeting there, but will keep a condition race for the local season by riding in the running races at the State Fair. Another jockey that has arrived here is Killingsworth, one of the few colored boys now riding, and who is connected with the stable of M. B. Gruber. Killingsworth rode Little Nephew in that gelding's brilliant races at Saratoga. E. Jones, Gruber's trainer, got the boy from Capt. W. F. Presgrave.

P. T. Sheridan has arrived from Canada and will go to Lexington in a few days. He let Al Woodman take his place in the training of the local season, but with Calish and Louis Widrig and M. Shields went from Latonia at the same time, taking with him the well known performers, J. B. Robinson and Carlisle. All these horses will come to the local tracks as soon as the racing season ends at Lexington.

Young Bros., who own the farm near Christianburg, Ky., where the late Capt. Sam Brown bred so many great race horses, have a remarkable weanling filly. She is a chestnut in color and is by the grey mare Helen. Order out of Cousin Martha, by Pirate of Pounce.

Manager John Hachmeister and his capable assistant, Frank Bruen, have arrived here and are now occupying their business quarters in the track office at the Douglas Park course. Secretary E. W. Maginn is expected here within a few days and the local program for the coming meeting at this track will shortly thereafter be distributed among trainers and owners. Manager Hachmeister was in an exceedingly happy humor upon his arrival here and expressed himself as highly elated over the prospects for great racing here this fall. He called attention to the fact that the horses that will race on the local courses this fall exceed in class those of any preceding year in the history of Kentucky racing. Said he: "In the old days we had a few good horses here and now we have them all." He also stated that trainer Frank Weir told him that he would race Old Rosebud at Douglas Park this fall and would be glad to meet his old rival, Little Nephew, in some of the overnight races during the coming meeting at this course. He also told Mr. Hachmeister that aside from running Old Rosebud in the Fort Thomas Handicap at Latonia this fall he would be glad to run the gelding late in the season in a mile race, providing such a purse is exclusively for youngsters of his age. Both Mr. Hachmeister and Mr. Bruen will remain here until the finish of the local fall racing season.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Walter O. Farmer was a bidder for Uebel and won as high as $375.

The stallion Zeus, knocked down to H. T. Oxnard at the Kohler dispersal sale, is to succeed Cyclades at the Adelbert Stud of the Messrs. Williams and Radford at Hopkinsville, Ky.

The British Columbia Thoroughbred Association ran another eleven-race program at Mission Park on Monday last, just prior to the suspension of racing for a few days on account of the Provincial Exhibition.

FAMOUS TWO-MILE RACES OF THE PAST.

Timely Review of Records of Stayers Prominent in American Turf History.

Louisville, Ky., September 6.—Two miles, the distance of the $5,000 Louisville Cup, the feature race of the coming eleven days' meeting at Douglas Park, opening on Tuesday, September 23, and which race is set for decision on the closing day of that meeting Saturday, October 4, has always been a popular route in the eyes of the racing public. In days gone by there have been many important stakes decided at this distance. The once famous Jockey Club Handicap and the Annual Stakes, both of which were run at Jerome Park, were at two miles, while the Sequel and Komer Stakes at Saratoga were at the same distance. Then there were the Dixie and Breckenridge Stakes at Baltimore; the Louisville St. Leger, at Churchill Downs; the Belle Meade Stakes, at Nashville; the Orleans Stakes at New Orleans and the Savannah Cup, at Savannah, Ga.

The Jockey Club Handicap, at Jerome Park, was first run in 1867, and continued a feature at that track as long as the course was in existence. Frankness, in 1873, and Wildfire in 1875 divided honors as holders of the race record for this event, each running the two miles in 3:38.4. The Annual Stakes was also first run in 1867, and the race record of 3:37.4 for it was scored in 1873 by the sensational three-year-old, Tom Bowling.

The Sequel and Komer Stakes had the oldest of these noted old-time two-mile races, having been first run in 1864. Maggie B. B., the dam of the only American-bred winner of the Epsom Derby and St. Leger, Ingham, ran two miles in 3:37.4 in this race as early as 1870. The Komer Stakes was first run in 1870 and was won by the great Equator, but his time was not the equal of Charlie Howard's, one of the early winners, he having run the distance in 3:35. The mighty Hindoo, a winner of this event in the 'eighties, ran the two miles in 3:32. The Monument Park Stakes had an existence running from 1871 to 1876, and Reform, in 1874, made the race record for this race by running two miles in 3:37.4. The Dixie Stakes, at Baltimore, was first run in 1870, and of the earlier winners of this event, Monitor, in 1871, ran the fastest two miles, 3:34.3. The Breckenridge Stakes, also run at Baltimore, was inaugurated in 1874 and its fastest winner of early years was Vandalia, which ran two miles in 3:35. The Louisville St. Leger was first run in 1875, and of its earlier winners, Creighton, in 1876, and Lord Murray, in 1879, ran in the event, each going the distance in 3:34. The Belle Meade Stakes, at Nashville, was won in 1877 by King William, whose two miles in 3:38 stands as the record for that race. The Orleans Stakes, at New Orleans, was run from 1872 to 1877. Cleopatra, in 1875, holds the record of 3:41 for this race. Little Reb, the winner of the Savannah Cup, ran two miles in 3:38, which is the race record for that event, first run in 1873.

The present Clark Handicap, at Churchill Downs, was run first as a two-mile race when it was inaugurated in 1875. The remarkable McWhirter, in 1877, ran two miles in this race in 3:30.4, which for years stood as the fastest two miles run in Kentucky. The two-mile record for Kentucky is 3:27.4, made by Ten Broeck, against time, at Churchill Downs in 1877. There have been many remarkable races run at two miles and one of those occurred at Saratoga on July 30, 1873, when True Blue beat Inboard in a desperate finish in the then first time of 3:32.4. Bradbrante, dam of the famous race horse, the Earl, ran this distance in 3:30.4 in 1877. Cleopatra, ran two miles in this race in 3:30.4, which for years stood as the fastest two miles run in Kentucky. The two-mile record for Kentucky is 3:27.4, made by Ten Broeck, against time, at Churchill Downs in 1877. Some early day performances at two miles by horses that are worthy of mention are Courier, 3:31.4; Katie Pease, 3:32.4; Glenmore, 3:33.4; Falsotto, 3:34.4; Volturio, 3:35.4; Vial, 3:37.4; Vial, D., 3:34.4; Lottery, 3:35.4; Arizona, 3:36.4; London, 3:36.4; Princess, 3:36.4; Aurelia, 3:37.4; Bushwaeker, 3:36; Colms, 3:36.4; Leveller, 3:37; Kinkead, 3:37.4; and Belle of Nelson, 3:36.4.

Of the performances at this distance in the last two decades the best are: Everette, 3:25.4 (the American record); Kinley Mack, 3:27.4; Maurice, 3:30; Emma C. (the dam of Commauto), 3:30; Patu Reader, 3:27.4; Mission (an eligible this season to the Louisville Cup), 3:28.4; Fitz Herbert, 3:25.4; Evanatus, 3:28.4; Barton, 3:28.4; Barrack, 3:29; Newton, 3:27.4; Rollins, 3:30.4; the present holder of the race record, Claudia, 3:29.4; Outburst, 3:30; Azo, 3:28.4; Colbert, 3:30; Sicanous, 3:28; Marquise, 3:29.4; Iras, 3:30.4; Joe Elman, 3:29.4; Borgheisi, 3:27.4; Livins, 3:28.4; Los Angeles, 3:27.4; Alma Dufour, 3:32.4; Gamester, 3:29.4; and Indes, 3:29.4.

A glance through this list of distinguished two-mile winners shows the names of many famous performers on the turf for sixty years back and indicates the kind of a horse it takes to win a great race at two miles, which will be the present holder of the Louisville Cup at Douglas Park this fall. It is gratifying to lovers of endurance in horses that the Douglas Park management has decided to fix the feature race of its annual fall meeting at two miles, inasmuch as all the great stakes of olden days at this distance have been discarded long since. That it will become a popular event goes without question. This season it has an entry list of thirty-three nominations, embracing many of the best horses in training today. In the list are such three-year-olds as Achilles, Hawthorn, Flying Fair, Harry Landis, Donerail, Foundation and Biskin, three of which are Derby winners this season and Helios as yet unbeaten this season. Of the older performers engaged, the stars include Rudolph, winner of the $15,000 Kentucky Handicap, Flora Fina, winner of the $5,000 Dominion Handicap, Swannanoa, Free Lance, the Latonia Derby winner of 1912, John Furlong, Colonel Holloway, Melton Street, Van Port, Princess Callaway, Milton B., Labold, Mission and Samuel R. Meyer. With good track conditions and clear weather on October 2 the day this big race is to be decided, and with a field made up from the above mentioned stars, it is a probability that a new American two-mile record will go to the credit of Douglas Park.

All the available stable room at Douglas Park has been spoken for and by the time of the opening on September 23 there will be quartered here and at Churchill Downs the greatest array of racing thoroughbreds ever gathered together on a track in this state. The meeting will be inaugurated with the running of the $3,500 Douglas Park Inaugural Handicap, a stake which closed with forty-eight entries. On Saturday, September 27, the Beechmont Stakes, for two-year-olds, will be decided, and for this race sixty-eight youngsters are eligible. During the eleven days of racing at Douglas Park there will be no purse of less than $600 in added money, and the overnight handicaps and special races will range in value from $700 to $1,000 in added money. In one of these events the two sensational geldings, Old Rosebud and Little Nephew, will meet to renew their famous duels of last spring over this track.

CONTRACT FOR J. McTAGGART.

Johnny McTaggart, the most popular rider at Saratoga and a free lance at that meeting in charge of Hugh Penny, who developed him, has secured a regular engagement as a result of his success at the Spa. The Quincy Stable has contracted for first call on the services of young McTaggart and he will ride in its colors at Havre de Grace and Laurel.

GETTING READY FOR BIG RACE.

Yesterday Set for Final Naming of Entries for Kentucky Endurance Stakes—Great Race Assured.

Louisville, Ky., September 6.—Great are the prospects for brilliant racing at Churchill Downs this fall. The autumn meeting of the New Louisville Jockey Club will begin on Wednesday, October 8, and continue for ten racing days, closing on Saturday, October 18.

The fall list of entries for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes will bring the running of the feature race of the fall racing season in Kentucky, the $15,000 Kentucky Endurance Stakes, four miles. This will be the third running of this rich event, which was won in its inaugural year by Messenger Boy, in 7:14.5, then the best record for the distance, while last season Mrs. L. A. Livingston's great mare, Sotemia, won the race and set a record of 7:10.4 for four miles, which is likely to be lowered this fall if weather and track conditions are favorable on the day the big race is run.

The fall list of entries for the Kentucky Endurance Stakes will be known shortly, as today marked the time of closing for entries by the twenty subscribers to the big race. A number of these subscribers have already named their entries, but a portion of those only named one or two horses, whereas, under the conditions, they have a right to name three out of which to pick their single starter, as each subscriber is permitted to have only one starter in the race.

Those already named assure a brilliant race. The three-year-olds embrace the Kentucky Derby winner, Donerail, the Canadian Derby winner, Biskin, the Latonia Derby winner, Gowell, the sensational Ten Point and Helios, the latter unbeaten so far this season. The older horses already named for the race include Rudolph, winner of the $15,000 Kentucky Handicap, Flora Fina, winner of the $5,000 Dominion Handicap, Swannanoa, a mare of unquestioned speed and stamina, Free Lance, winner of the Latonia Derby of 1912, and such other well-known performers as Light of Life, Spring Board, Beautiful Milton B., Pandoria, Kinley, Colonel Holloway, Moisant, Boh R., Absconder, All Gold, Prince Eugene and the locally-owned gelding, Pinhook.

There are a few who fancy Absconder's chances. This horse has this season run several remarkable races with high weight up and most of them over considerable distances of ground. During the Saratoga meeting, just closed, he won a race at one mile and a quarter in 2:12.5, ridden by a gentleman rider and carrying 165 pounds. At Brookline, Mass., he won at two miles and an eighth in 3:53.5, with 174 pounds up, and at one mile and a eighth in 1:56, with 155 pounds up. At Piping Rock he won at one mile and a half with 168 pounds up in 2:48.4, and at the same track and same distance, he won again in 2:45.7, with 158 pounds up. At Rembrandt, he won at two miles in 3:46.7, with 153 pounds up and at a mile and a eighth in 2:52, with 155 pounds up. He also won at Philadel last spring. Considering the weights carried, this horse, owned by Jesse Williamson II., has surely run this season some remarkable races and seems like a horse that will run well for four miles. Absconder did not win at all as a two-year-old or at three, and only won one race in sixteen starts as a four-year-old, though he was four times placed at that age. He is now a five-year-old and his performance with weight up shows that he has fully developed and is now at his best.

Absconder is bred royally. He is by that great race horse, Disguise, and his dam, Swiftfoot, also produced Senece, now six years old and still racing in excellent form. Swiftfoot is a daughter of the famous Lady Beel, dam of the mighty Hapsburg, Hapsburg, Strathfield, Amanda IV., Renown and Lady Languish, which sold at the record price of $25,000 for a weanling. Absconder's granddam is the wonderful mare Manuie Gray, dam of Domino, the greatest money-winning horse in American turf history, he having won $193,550 during his racing career. As a sire also, he ranks among the greatest this country has known. This is a family noted for two most remarkable four-mile races. Reel and Lecompte, Reel was not beaten until she broke down in her famous race with George Martin, in the staid she produced the great War Dance, which staked some remarkable four-milers, like Tuhman and Stampedo, the latter being the first horse to win a four-mile race at Churchill Downs. Lecompte was one of the greatest of horses of the last two decades and is the only performer that ever defeated the immortal Lexington, and he beat him at four miles. So it will be seen that Absconder has breeding to warrant the belief that he will go four miles, once he is in condition for such a long race. It would appear that his long distance racing with big weight up should leave him in fine condition for his Kentucky Endurance Stakes engagement.

Three other stake races are down for decision at Churchill Downs this fall. Chief of these is the Falls City Handicap, six furlongs, $2,000 added, which has among its forty-seven nominations practically every great sprinter now in training. Another event is the Cherokee Stakes, one mile and a sixteenth, $1,000 added, which has a good entry list of thirty-two nominations, while the Golden Rod Stakes, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, $1,000 added, has the big number of fifty-seven entries.

The purses, special races and handicaps at the Downs this fall will carry values ranging from $600 to $1,000, and the latter value will be contributed to bring together the best two-year-olds of the season, including those two sensational sons of Uncle, Old Rosebud and Little Nephew, both of which are locally owned. Manager M. J. Winn, of the New Louisville Jockey Club, who has just returned from New York, says he never saw such keen interest in Kentucky racing as has been shown in the east this fall. He left New York with the assurance from the majority of the leading turfmen of that section, many of them members of the Jockey Club, that they would be present at Churchill Downs on October 8 for the running of the $15,000 Kentucky Endurance Stakes. The members of the Kentucky State Racing Commission will all be here to see the four-mile race and they will, as usual, donate to the event a $1,000 gold cup, of a pattern similar to the trophy presented to the trainer of Sotemia last fall by Gov. James B. McCreary, in a speech which was most appropriate to the occasion and delivered in his happy style.

The plant at Churchill Downs is now being put in the best of condition and all the improvements made have been with a view to adding to the comfort and convenience of its patrons. It is anticipated that a record-breaking throng will swarm the course on the day the Kentucky Endurance Stakes is decided, and that the crowd will be representative of the best element of citizenship as in the old days gathered to see the great four-mile races of Ediphe and Henry, Wagner and Gray Eagle, Boston and Fashion and Lexington and Lecompte.

HIGH-CLASS FILLIES FOR AUSTRALIA.

Perhaps the most valuable consignment on the White Star liner, Konic, which left Liverpool recently for Sydney, is a select lot of half a dozen fillies sold by Mr. J. B. Joel through the British Bloodstock Agency. They include Perilla (three years), by Polymelus, from the Oaks winner, Our Lassie; Pansy (three years), by Polymelus, from Rousseau's Dream; Sundream (two years), by Sundridge out of the same mare; Golden Fly (two years), by Your Majesty out of Monche d'Or, by Bend Or; Ferry Maid (two years), by Bridge of Canby out of Engenia, whose dam is half sister to Dime, and Royal Pet (two years), by Your Majesty out of the Girl, a half sister to Delamare. Such fillies should form the foundation of a very high-class stud in Australia.

HAS BRILLIANT OPENING

MONTREAL JOCKEY CLUB'S FALL MEETING BEGINS UNDER AUSPICIOUS CONDITIONS.*Planover, Well Supported as a Favorite, Is Returned Winner of the King's Plate—Important Rulings Made Public.

Montreal, Que., September 6.—Brilliant conditions attended the inauguration of the Montreal Jockey Club's closing meeting at Blue Bonnets this afternoon, since the weather, a fast track, well-matched fields and sport of the stirring sort being the order of the day. Most of the finishes were well contested, particularly in the secondary features, a handicap steeplechase over the full course and a handicap at one mile. In local interest, however, both these events were subordinated to the seventh renewal of the Montreal King's Plate, in which eight of the original ten nominations faced the barrier. Planover, the three-year-old daughter of Planudes and Handover, running in the colors of the Jockey Club, and well supported by regulars and the public as well, came with great speed in the stretch and won drawing away from Irish Heart, from the stable of Sir Henry Montagu Allan, a prominent Canadian importer and president of the Montreal Jockey Club. Flora Fina, owned by J. S. Campbell, and with King Saxe, from the Allan stable, coupled with the second horse as a three-horse entry, was third, several lengths in advance of Bushlark.

The King's Plate was first run at Blue Bonnets in 1907. Its history follows:
Year. Winner. A. Wt. Jockey. Val. Time.
1907 Woodbine ..... 123 Digby ..... $ 515 2:20.4
1908 Harmony ..... 123 J. W. M'by 7:40 2:15
1909 S. S. B. .... 122 J. Howard ..... 845 2:18.4
1910 The Lof Mercia 124 Goldstein ..... 845 2:15.4
1911 Kilo ..... 121 J. Wilson ..... 1,065 2:13.5
1912 Sam's Droll ..... 121 R. Small ..... 1,350 2:17.4
1913 Planover ..... 112 E. Martin ..... 1,545 2:10.4
*Floral Crown finished first and was disqualified for fouling.

Blue Bonnets was taxed to its capacity to accommodate the throng that turned out. Thirty-seven lavatories had a rushing business, and the supplementary system of the parliament-hotel found ready support. The Canadian, who apparently are taking to this form of speculation.

The colors of Richard P. Carman, which had not before been seen in Canada this season, were prominent when G. M. Miller, now at the top of his form, won the mile handicap in fast time for Plate Glass and Airey. The race was hard fought throughout and Donerail, the Kentucky Derby winner, was badly outpaced in the run home.

Frank J. Bryan, the well known eastern official, and Secretary William F. Higgins of the Maryland Jockey Club, are serving as stewards of the meeting, with Messrs. Bartlett McLennan and Colin Campbell of Montreal.

With a full membership present, the Canadian Racing Association committee held its most important meeting of the year this morning at Lamark clubhouse. Secretary Fraser also was in attendance. The suspensions against jockeys Fred Teahan, William Hopkins and Milton Nathan were lifted unconditionally. Teahan left his home in Windsor this morning to ride at Havre de Grace. Nathan is here, Lamark mounts and Hopkins, who rode this afternoon, will accept soon an offer to ride in Belgium. Jockey Skirvin was granted a license and the suspension against jockey Willie Knapp, principal rider until the second Hamilton meeting for the Robert Davies stable, was allowed to stand. In addition to the race in which Plate Glass was beaten by Cliff Edge at Hamilton, other suspicious instances of Knapp's riding have come to the stewards' notice.

W. W. Lyles has received word from M. J. Winn of his appointment to an official position at Lamark. Jockey Gould was suspended for three days by starter Dade for disobedience while at the post with Emerald Gem.

Steward Bryan has ruled that riders and others under suspension will be denied the privileges of the course during their term of punishment. Jockey Monck, Walter O. Farmer and George M. Hendrie were visitors.

Captain Dubain again has assumed charge of the Pinkerton forces on the Canadian circuit following the closing of racing at Saratoga.

President L. La Laronde of the new Dorval Jockey Club, declared today that the course would be completed and ready to race over on September 15.

DEAD HEAT AT DUFFERIN OPENING.

Toronto, Ont., September 6.—Favorite followers had an unprofitable experience at Dufferin Park this afternoon for the opening day of the Metropolitan Racing Association's fall meeting. Only one decided choice scoring. The second dead heat ever witnessed at the course came with the running of the seventh race, when Lady Robbins and Ynca, both outsiders in the betting, finished so closely together that the judges were unable to separate them.

Fully 5,000 persons were in attendance and the conditions were perfect for good racing. True Step ran unplaced in the seventh event in the colors of her new owner, J. W. Pinkham, who purchased the filly from J. Greenwood yesterday. W. C. Westmoreland has also disposed of Starboard to J. McPherson.

Jockey H. Wilson was suspended for one day by starter Murray for disobedience at the post and jockey Halsey was fined $10 by the judges for a display of bad temper at the conclusion of the third race.

Jockey C. Jackson arrived today from Timonium.

CAR SHORTAGE DELAYS LEXINGTON RACERS.

Horses Due from Saratoga Somewhat Slow in Arriving—Preparations for Meeting Complete.

Lexington, Ky., September 6.—The car shortage at Saratoga has delayed the arrival of racing stables here. Frank Weir arrived last night with Old Rosedale, Grover Hughes, Kileena, Aunt Mamie, Barbara Lane, Ida Lavina, Nellie Irene, Edith W., Any Port and Hebe. The stables of Johnson N. Camden, J. Livingston, E. R. Bradley, John E. Madden, W. G. Vanke and O. A. Bachel are expected here tomorrow or Monday. The blatt came here from Cincinnati today and attended to the bedding of stalls for the Lexington horses. Hurdley Baker, John S. Ward and Lew Marlon will bring their horses here from Louisville on Monday. John J. McCafferty and Amos Turner are due from Canada tomorrow night.
Everything in the way of preparation at the track for the opening on Thursday afternoon has been done. Racing Secretary Will Shelley and Roger Sullivan, his assistant, are now engaged in issuing badges to the spectators. The track is in as good shape as possible. The weather has been exceedingly hot and the earth is actually parched for want of rain. Sprinkling carts have been kept on the track all night every night for the past week.
Gene Elrod will be here Monday with his crew to make preparations in the parliament department for the opening. W. H. Landman, supervisor of the betting, will return Tuesday from his vacation in Michigan. Starter Harry Morrissey will arrive Wednesday from the west. Capt. Thomas J. Clay will be the presiding judge, as usual.
John W. Schorr and Mrs. Schorr are here for the opening. They came from Saratoga in their automobile.
The best move thus far at the track is a mile in 1:40 1/2, by Flying Tom, won trained by James H. Baker. Gowell worked three-quarters in 1:14 1/2. The order has been three-quarters in from 1:15 to 1:16 and miles in from 1:42 to 1:43. Swannana worked this morning 1:15 and Theresa Gill and Esther Blue in the same time.

TIMONIUM MEETING COMES TO CLOSE.

Baltimore, Md., September 6.—The five-days' meeting at Timonium came to an end with the running of this afternoon's races. Because of threatening weather the attendance was the lightest of any day since the meeting opened. The card was made up of the usual six races, although it became necessary to declare one off and substitute another in its place. All of the races were well contested and there were several close finishes, so the sport was thoroughly enjoyed. The card was made up of the usual six races, although it became necessary to declare one off and substitute another in its place. All of the races were well contested and there were several close finishes, so the sport was thoroughly enjoyed.
While riding Summit in the third race D. Hoffman had his leg fractured when his mount was knocked into the fence by Dunlap, who rode Little England. Hoffman was taken to the Mercy Hospital.
Monty Fox, Kedron and other horses in the Lansdowne Stable will be shipped to Syracuse.
Jockey A. Hanover will go from here to Canada to ride, but Epton intends to remain here and try for a few mounts at Havre de Grace.
Two carloads of horses have arrived at Havre de Grace from Mineral Springs, Ind., including P. J. Miles' Palencia, Be and five others, G. W. Scott's J. H. Houghton, Dr. R. L. Swanger and Daniel. Mr. Scott brought on the old campaigner Berkeley for H. G. Redwell. J. M. Cooper was another Mineral Springs arrival with Satyr, Jessup Burn and Mycenae.
H. G. Redwell lost the two-year-old colt Pat Rut-

A Big Melon Cutting

For opening day—Wednesday, September 10—at Havre de Grace I have, what I honestly believe, the biggest and juiciest melon of my turf career. Prepared in secret, and shipped to the Maryland track, the object is a cleanup. It cost me money, but experience has taught me the best is none too good, and cheap information is worthless.

HERE IS MY SPECIAL BARGAIN OFFER

I am offering the WHOLE MEETING—one horse daily—mailed the night before, in plain sealed envelope, for the nominal sum of $10. If your subscription is received by noon Tuesday, it will include my opening day special—FREE. Now, this is giving it away. The special alone is worth double the price I ask for the WHOLE meeting.

Has been turned out for a couple of years, but is better right now than ever before and will "back-jump" home next week at Lexington at
